The library offers thousands of resources to help you explore the topics of Justice covered in the 2018 Firebird Film Festival. Here are a few recommendations to get you started.

Police / Gun Violence in Our Society

If You Saw
Fruitvale Station

Try
The Politics of Community Policing
by William Lyons

The Human Cost of the Prison Industrial Complex

If You Saw
The Kalief Browder Story

Try
Challenging the Prison Industrial Complex
by Stephen John Harnett (ed.)

Healthcare Can't Wait: Healthcare Access in America

If You Saw
The Waiting Room

Try
The Healthcare Safety Net in a Post-Reform World
by Mark A. Hall and Sara Rosenbaum (eds.)

These resources and more available online at udc.libguides.com/firebirdfilmfestival2018
Breaking the School to Prison Pipeline

If You Saw

Vice: Raised in the System or A Week in Watts

Try

Disrupting the School to Prison Pipeline by Sofia Behana
The Public Assault on America’s Children by Valeri Polakow

Protecting Our Voting and Civil Rights

If You Saw

Unforgiven: How This Man in Florida Lost His Voting Rights or Selma

Try

Locked Out by Jeff Manza and Christopher Uggen
Protest at Selma by David J. Garrow

Honoring Our Elders and Seeking the Visions of Youth

If You Saw

Black Panther

Try

Afrofuturism
by Ytasha L. Womack

These resources and more available online at udc.libguides.com/firebirdfilmfestival2018